the trouble of deciding
which clothes to wear.*

A full-body photograph of the same woman from the previous image, now standing on a rocky, light-colored hillside. She is wearing the same orange kurta with floral embroidery, paired with green leggings and black socks. She is looking towards the horizon. The background shows a clear blue sky with some white clouds. At the top of the frame, there is a decorative header with the brand name "SHUBHnx" and a slogan "Find your happiest colours - the ones that make you feel good." Below the header, there is a small logo with the number "1005".

An inset photograph showing the same woman from a side profile. She is now holding a long, narrow wooden board or paddle horizontally above her head with both hands. She is still smiling and wearing the same outfit. The background is a bright, possibly snowy or reflective surface with a distant shoreline and trees.

Style is knowing who you are, what you want to say, and not giving a damn.

*Very trifles as they seem, clothes have, they say,
more important offices than to merely keep us warm.*
